ASSAULT-AT-ARMS

A Great Success

The Assault-at-Arms held on Thursday night in the Opera House, while a common enough form of entertainment in the Old Country, was the first of its kind ever held here, but the innovation evidently appealed to a responsive chord in the breasts of the young men of the town and brought them out in large numbers, over 400 being present. As free permission was given to smoke, those present enjoyed a programme of clean manly sport to the accompaniment of their favourite pipe and the assemblage was in the happiest mood throughout. Dr. Huycke made an efficient chairman, and the arrangements ran smoothly from first to last.

After Mr. F. Treadgold had whiled away a portion of the interval before commencement with a piano selection, Dr. Huycke opened the proceedings in half-a-dozen words, expressing his pleasure at the size of the crowd, and called upon Mr. W. M. Parker for a piano solo, which elicited much applause.

After a song, sung with acceptance by Mr. D. McFarlane, the chairman announced the first event would be boxing between light-weights, Messrs. Scholl and Levitt. The Doctor emphasised the fact that the contest would be no prize fight, but clean, amateur boxing, and that the men were the best of friends.

An orthodox "ring" had been rigged up on the stage with padded corners, in which Messrs. Wilgress and Edwards acted as seconds and Mr. A. C. Pettman as referee. Mr. Finch was timekeeper throughout all the bouts.

Levitt showed good defence throughout in the first round, during which Scholl took the aggressive most of the time but without much effect. In the second round, Levitt countered well and landed on his opponent's head. Scholl directed his attack to the body, but Levitt guarded most of the blows. In the third, he landed, however, following up to the jaw, but Levitt came back strong to the jaw and head.

As no decision was given in any of the bouts, it is impossible to give any official verdict on points, but Levitt seemed to have the best of it.

In the next event, single-sticks, Dr. Huycke announced that Mr. Parkinson was acting as a substitute, Mr. Aviss' scheduled antagonist not being able to be present, and as he had been unwell for two or three days, he would not go the full time.

Aviss had decidedly the best of it from the start. Parkinson landed one good touch, but Aviss retaliated later with one on the throat which, in actual warfare with sabres, would have lopped his head off. Parkinson then discarded his "sword" for a pole padded on the end, which he used as a bayonet. Aviss showed superiority in getting through his opponent's guard, but Parkinson scored a good thrust at the end of the encounter.

A six-round go between middle-weights followed, the participants being Messrs. D. Barnes and A. C. Pettman, with Mr. H. Johnston as referee. The genial "Dave" was most good-humoured throughout and was hardly able to "fight" on account of the wide grin that distorted his countenance. Pettman had clearly the best of it, being faster on his feet and in better condition. He did some pretty dodging of Barnes' swings, and generally retaliated with a resounding slap somewhere on the back portion of Barnes' anatomy. Barnes shone to better advantage in the fourth and fifth, getting in a good left to the head, but the sixth, in which they mixed it a bit to give a fast finish, was Pettman's. The bout was a very popular item, and both boxers received much applause at its conclusion.

Mr. A. J. Jones applied to the Council for a transfer to him of Mr. L. C. Aviss' right to a lease of the foreshore, as he had purchased the boat-house on it from the Aviss estate. He stated, in reply to a query, that he would probably build an addition to the boat house and would also put up a boat-building establishment on the piles already driven for that purpose.

After some discussion, it was resolved, on motion of Ald. Leckie and Copeland, that an agreement be made with Mr. A. J. Jones leasing the foreshore, formerly under agreement with L. C. Aviss, for a term of not less than ten years.

Ald. Copeland, having arranged with Mr. C. Blackwood to take over the duties of pound-keeper once more, the appointment was formally confirmed on motion.

A plan was submitted of a subdivision of Block 22, Map 202, which was approved, and, on motion, accepted.

Ald. Dalgleish referred to the matter of fire escapes on the School, which had been discussed at a former Council meeting, and asked what had been done.

The Mayor stated that the matter would come under the provisions of the new Fire By-law, four pages of which he had drafted and now handed to the aldermen for individual consideration before completion.

Ald. Leckie said the lowest window of the top floor of the School was 24 feet from the ground, but there were roomy exits by means of staircases, and the building seemed to him reasonably safe. Still, he thought fire escapes should be provided.

Ald. Leckie stated that when Mr. Colquette was engaged last year as chief engineer of the power plant, he had been promised an increase of salary in a year's time, and as his work had been thoroughly satisfactory, the promise should now be implemented.

The other aldermen joined Ald. Leckie in his eulogies of Mr. Colquette, and on motion of Ald. Leckie and Jones, it was resolved, That the salary of Mr. Colquette, chief engineer at the power plant, be at the rate of $150 per month, beginning 1st March, 1911.

Ald. Cox desired to call attention to the conduct of a number of Chinamen in working on Sunday on the reconstruction of the laundry destroyed by fire during the previous week. It was probably a matter for the Police Commissioners. White men were not permitted to work on Sunday, and Chinamen should not be exempt from the prohibition. Conditions in regard to Sunday observance were getting worse all the time. Most of the shacks that had been put up in the north part of the town had been built on Sunday.

Ald. Leckie, while in favour of preventing Sunday work if possible, thought it would be difficult to stop Chinamen from working on Sunday when white people played games on that day, as he understood frequently occurred. There was a marked lack of observance of the Sabbath west of the Rockies as compared with the prairies. In his opinion, the matter should be referred to the City Solicitor for his advice as to the jurisdiction of the Council.

Ald. Dalgleish agreed that measures should be taken, if possible, to stop Sunday work and secure better observance of the Sabbath.

The Mayor took issue with some of the remarks made by his colleagues and considered that law and order were particularly well observed in town.

Ald. Cox returned to the charge and declared that in certain subdivisions close to where he resided no less than five shacks had been built on Sundays. If he had been able to have the law behind him, he would have stopped the work. Besides building, all sorts of work, including wood-splitting, went on on Sunday, to the annoyance of people who observed the Sabbath.

The Mayor said he had had no intimation prior to the statement made by Ald. Cox, of the Chinamen having worked on Sunday rebuilding the laundry.

Ald. Leckie—"You don't read the newspapers."

No definite action was taken in the matter.

Ald. Copeland submitted a list of necessary supplies for the Fire Brigade, consisting of 12 coats and 12 pairs of boots, and, on motion, the Fire Committee was empowered to deal with tenders for the required articles and to purchase them.

On motion of Ald. Leckie and Dalgleish, it was resolved, That all owners of assessed property on the City roll, taxes on which are two years in arrears or over, be notified that such property will be sold unless arrears are paid forthwith.

Before adjournment, Ald. Cox again returned to the subject of Sunday work and asked if some means could not be taken to prevent the Chinamen from engaging in carpenter work on the following day.

The Mayor accordingly instructed the Clerk to notify Constable MacRae that the Chinamen must not be permitted to work on Sunday.

Council adjourned until Saturday, March 4th.

Two men were killed on Friday last when the Halifax train from Middleton to Lunenburg was wrecked. Five other passengers were badly injured.

HOCKEY

Shamrocks 9, Juniors 4

About the last game of hockey for this season was played last night, at Haug's Rink, between the Shamrocks and their speedy rivals, the Juniors. The game was very fast and some good hockey was shown by both teams, but the referee, Mr. W.
Pettigrew, was kept busy sending players to the fence for rough and dirty play with their sticks, conduct which merits severe punishment, as it spoils the sport. At half-time the score stood 5 to 3 in favour of the Shamrocks, and they added four more points in the second half, while their opponents only secured one additional goal.

The line-up was as follows—

Shamrocks	Juniors
J. Kincaid goal	C. Knight
L. Watt point	G. Fuller
J. Copeland cover pt.	E. Hoy
L. Pettigrew rover	C. Finley
J. Patterson centre	W. Fuller

Fruit Packing School

The fruit packing school arranged for the Kelowna district by the Department of Agriculture, will begin on Wednesday next, March 8th, and continue until the 20th.

It is proposed to hold two separate classes, one to meet each morning from 9.30 to 12, and the other in the afternoon from 2 to 4.30. It is, however, the desire of the instructor, Mr. Zeremmer, that all intending pupils should meet at the Farmers' Exchange building, where the classes will be held, at 9 a.m. on the opening day, when the hours of meeting can be definitely fixed as most convenient, and the pupils divided into classes.

There is still room for one or two more pupils (male or female), but immediate application should be made to the secretary of the Farmers' Institute, Mr. John Leathley.

The following announcement was made in the committee rooms of the House of Commons last Friday by Sir Frederick Borden. "We intend to carry out Sir John French's report so far as the whole force of Canada is concerned, perhaps not as rapidly as we would like but not less rapidly than we have been progressing in this department in the past seven or eight years. The artillery will be increased to the strength it should have and the cavalry and infantry also.
Necessary armament will be supplied as rapidly as possible and divisions made as the general's report suggested."

We are asked by the Secretary of the Hospital to state that donations of vegetables, fruit, dairy produce,

"THE KISSING GIRL"

Big Opera Comes to Kelowna

The faith of Brandon Bros. in the good judgment and musical taste of the Kelowna public and that they are trying to secure the better class of attractions for their patrons is evidenced in the announcement of the appearance of the first of John Cort's big productions to visit the Okanagan Valley.

"The Kissing Girl," a fascinating composition by Stanislaus Stange, contains twenty-one song numbers, the majority of which are so catchy that, wherever the performance is given, they may be heard whistled in the street the following day by people of ready ear.

"The Kissing Girl," as impersonated by Texas Guffman, trips through the lit of her "Little Band of Gold" song. The enchanting musical play delights capacity crowds nightly.

MISS FITZHUGH, Prima Donna Sop.
"The Kissing Girl"

"Good Old German Beer," dignified into a real anthem in glorification of the malt and hops over which Gam-brinus reigns, by the sonority of Harry Hermon's capacious voice, and "On the Boulevard," with a swing in its measures which typifies all the gay life of the thoroughfare apothecized in the song, are others of the musical numbers which are prominent in having established the new show a favourite among those in search of relaxation and enjoyment. Pleasing comedy bits are contributed by Thos. Whiffen and Ida Fitzhugh, and a bewildering array of chorus beauties adds to a riot of colourful magnificence, emphasized by a surpassingly fetching scenic inven-titure.

This big opera will be staged in complete detail at the Kelowna Opera House, Monday, March 6th.

OKANAGAN MISSION NOTES

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. M. Heron, road foreman, was in the district one day this week, and it is rumoured that several improvements to the roads are in contemplation this spring, notably the new short road to Kelowna past the Meadows, an extensively signed petition for which was forwarded to the government last fall.

The fruit-packing school, held here last week, has proved a great success. Twelve pupils were present most of the time, the attendance never falling below ten, and the instructor, Mr. Zeremmer, expressed himself as fully satisfied with the keenness and ability shown by his pupils.
A hearty vote of thanks is due to Mr. Zeremmer for the able and painstaking manner in which he fulfilled the office of instructor and to Messrs.
Taylor & Ohafer for their courtesy in placing the annex to their store at the disposal of the school, without which kindness it would have been impossible to have held the school at all.

WESTBANK NOTES

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Rev. J. Knox held Methodist service on Sunday.

Mrs. W. G. Hewlett was a visitor to Kelowna on Monday.

Mr. A. L. Muirhead was a visitor

Miss Hewlett is visiting in Peach-of horse-stealing which have occurred

Mr. J. S. Marshall spent two or three days here this week, returning

Mrs. G. Bughman and Miss Bugh-man went down to Peachland on at that point.

Mr. H. de Lautour went up to business connected with his property there.

Mr. A. Nicol and Mr. G. Bugh-

The next meeting of the Ladies' Friendly Society will be held on 2nd March at Mrs. Thacker's home, and the last dance of the season will take place on 17th March.

Much annoyance is being caused to residents by a ferocious dog of the collie species which makes a practice of rushing at sleighs, and on one occasion recently jumped into a sleigh and tore the coat of one of the lady occupants. The animal in question seems to have no permanent owner, but something should be done to abate the public nuisance.

The British Columbia Safety Powder Co. has been quietly at work for the past four months in its factory at Abbotsford, and is now selling its product to farmers and others in the district. If reports are to be relied on, it would seem that, at last, there is on the market an explosive possessing the hitherto uncombined cardinal virtues—safety, strength and odourlessness. "Lionite" may be dropped from the housetop, have a pistol fired at it or a torch thrown into it without fear of an explosion. It is a stumping and blasting compound of great strength and has been invented and patented by David Murray Stirton, a miner of wide experience.

H. M. C. S. Rainbow arrived in Vancouver from her northern cruise last week with the American fishing schooner Edrie, of Seattle, in tow.
The Rainbow captured the American ship when the latter was fishing within the three mile limit in Hecate Straits. The Yankees deny that they were inside the limits, but the fact that they hauled in their nets and made a vigorous attempt at a getaway as soon as the warship was sighted, and did not stop until three shots were planted in front of their bows, will not do them any good at the trial. The Edrie is a gasoline craft, of 60 tons net, and is owned by the Chloepack Fishing Co., of Seattle.

Do not save money by first attacking your business stationery.

The impression created by business stationery is lasting, and many a house has lost business owing to the fact that letterheads, billheads, statements, envelopes, business cards, etc., were got up in such a manner as to leave the receiver under the impression that such a concern was doing business in an attic.

High-Class Job Work at the "Courier"

Mr. E. A. Woods gave a comic song in good form, for which he received an enthusiastic encore.

The next item on the programme was the chairman's speech, which Dr. Huyke modestly said would be the most uninteresting part of the performance. He said that for a few weeks past several of those keenly interested in athletics had been meeting in a small room for the purpose of having a little boxing and wrestling, and the entertainment that evening had been got up in order to test the feeling in favour of the establishment of a gymnasium. The large attendance was splendid evidence of the support that might be expected. He referred to the opposition to the entertainment emanating from some people in town, one of whom characterized it as a disgrace to the place, but the Doctor held that such a statement would never have been made, had the speaker known it was to be a gentlemanly affair throughout, to encourage clean sport. The proceeds would be devoted to the equipment of a gymnasium, to be started in conjunction with the Fire Brigade (Applause), and in this connection he asked Mr. F. M. Buckland to make a statement.

Mr. Buckland, on coming forward, was greeted with loud applause. He said the Fire Brigade intended to start a gymnasium about Oct. 1st, as they had now sufficient funds to procure the equipment. For successful operation, however, the support of the men and boys of the town would be necessary in order to meet running expenses, but the membership fee need not be very large.

Dr. Huyke pointed out that the entertainment given that evening was entirely an amateur affair, and all the proceeds would be retained in town. He asked the audience to bestow their patronage on another worthy amateur performance, that of "Pinafore," on Monday and Tuesday, by the Amateur Musical & Dramatic Society. (Applause).

The heavy-weight boxing event was the next item on the programme. It proved rather disappointing, as Mr. L. B. Simeon, who was expected to show good form, was evidently sadly out of condition and lacked speed and wind. His antagonist, Mr. H. Johnston, was altogether too much for him and out-pointed him from the commencement. The bout only lasted two rounds. Simeon took the aggressive at the start but soon had to adopt defensive tactics. Some lively exchanges took place, the advantage resting with Johnston. The second round opened with a good rally, but a body punch from Johnston destroyed the remainder of Simeon's wind and from a stiff punch to the jaw he staggered backwards and went through the ropes. In falling, he strained his back, so the rest of the bout was declared off.

Mr. D. McFarlane again favoured the audience with a song, which was well received.

An athletic extravaganza followed, which took the form of a comic boxing match between Messrs. J. F. Sampson and Stanley Wright. The chairman announced that Mr. Sampson would not consent to enter the ring until his adversary promised not to hit him below the knees. With the promise exacted, at it they went, and they were a pretty pair, with an apparent disparity of about three feet in height, intensified by much padding on the part of Wright, who also adopted a crouching, Johnsonesque attitude, calculated to inspire dread in the heart of his lengthy opponent. The gloves were a dream, and the pair went three rounds to the accompaniment of shrieks of laughter from the audience. In despair at finding his punches ineffectual to settle his grass-hopperlike enemy, Sampson used his feet to some purpose, which added to the amusement, but the bout ended with honours even and both combatants much exhausted.

Boxing of a different order followed with a fast three rounds between Messrs. Levitt and Fisher, Woods Lake. The latter has been light-weight champion of Cambridge University and has trained under Owen Moran, and he certainly showed the benefits of his training in some pretty work. Levitt did well, but his previous go with Scholl had told on him to a certain extent, and he lacked the freshness of Fisher, who was fast all throughout and led most of the time. The first round was very fast, with Fisher boring in and compelling Levitt to act on the defensive, and the round seemed much in favour of Fisher, but in the second Levitt showed up to advantage and broke through his opponent's guard, landing two clean blows to the head. Honours were fairly even in this round, but in the third, which was fast and furious, it good-tempered all through. Fisher did some very swift work and landed a succession of light body punches, which, in serious fighting, would have been very damaging. Not that he had it all his own way, however, as Levitt, while obviously tired, boxed prettily and landed an occasional blow that, in ring work, would score heavily. The bout was the best of the boxing on the evening's programme, and the same men, with Levitt fresh and in good condition, should make an interesting match on a future occasion.

Mr. T. Hill sang "Mistress Nancy" in fine voice, and in response to a vociferous encore he gave "A Hundred Fathoms Deep," a song which admirably suited his sweet and powerful voice.

Messrs. Burne and Errington gave an exhibition of fencing with foil, with Mr. F. Armstrong as referee. Both scored frequently, and it was rather difficult for the spectators to determine with whom the advantage lay, but Errington seemed to have the better of it.

Dr. Huyke made the announcement that there would be another entertainment of a similar nature during the month of April, when more boxing will be provided, and an endeavour will be made to secure an excursion boat from the Landing.

Mr. W. M. Parker received a demonstrative encore for his vocal rendering of "The Rag-Time Hymn."

The last event was the best of the whole programme, a wrestling match between Messrs. E. A. Woods and Beecher, with Mr. H. Johnston as referee, under catch-as-catch-can rules. Both men showed they knew the game, and some very pretty work was done, especially in recoveries from seemingly hopeless positions. Beecher got Woods down first but could not get both shoulders to the mat, and Woods quickly recovered himself. After a prolonged struggle, Beecher scored the first fall. The second bout was very short, Woods quickly scoring. The third was productive of some spectacular work, which was much appreciated by the spectators, and although Beecher eventually won, the loser was as loudly applauded as the winner.

The whole entertainment showed how contemptible and ill-deserved was the criticism that cried "disgrace!" beforehand. Not a blow was struck in anger throughout the evening, and the sport provided was of the cleanest kind. The gods forefend that our youths should grow up into pimply-faced "sissy-boys" of the milk-and-water type, nor do we want to see them become quarrelsome bullies, but no boy suffers morally by learning the noble art of self-defence, which may serve him well in time of need, not perhaps to protect himself alone but mother, sister or sweetheart from ruffianly insult. The good sense of the community may be trusted to refuse support to those who would frown down every legitimate form of sport and amusement so long as it does not consort with their narrow prejudices, and we hope that Thursday's event will be productive of a succession of similar entertainments in the future.

Karl Johnson, a miner, was killed last Friday in the Britannia mine by gases left after firing of a dynamite blast. His comrade, Reinberg, had a narrow escape.

F. T. Griffin, C. P. R. Land Commissioner, at Winnipeg, who is on a visit to headquarters in Montreal, states that within the last two years 20,000,000 acres of government land have been taken up as homesteads and pre-emptions. The result is that the last block of open prairie lands in the West available for homestead entry and pre-emption has now been practically taken up, and future homesteaders will have to resort to the partially wooded lands of the northern and outlying districts, or will have to purchase from the railway companies and other holders. This is bound to mean a further increase in the value of the land.

The Dominion Government has decided to stop the immigration of negroes from the United States into Western Canada, and on Friday stopped at the boundary a party of negroes as undesirable citizens. The 1911 immigration movement from the United States has started at North Portal, 15 cars of settlers' effects having been cleared last Friday and Saturday alone. Several of the cars were destined for Spirit River, which means an overland trip of over five hundred miles from Edmonton. The movement is largely from the Dakotas and Iowa. There is a noticeable improvement in the quality of the horses being brought in by the settlers, a considerable percentage being registered stock.

Mr. J. S. Rear has just received word from Mr. Keefer, the Dominion government engineer at New Westminster, that the Federal government has authorized him to blast the rocks, etc., out of the Naas River as soon as he can get his men up the river, and place the same in condition for navigation by river boats from the Naas Harbour to the entrance to the Naas valley. This is a most important move as it will enable river boats to run right up to the end of the valley. An English syndicate has made arrangements to place a number of settlers from the British Isles and to colonize the whole valley. Mr. Rear is at the head of the syndicate.

er, indeed, but few would object to blithe Spring hurrying her laggard steps from the sunny South, if she is really in that quarter, as seems doubtful, considering that they had snow in San Francisco three or four days ago—the first to fall in the memory of the majority of the inhabitants. And how the kids enjoyed it! and even the grown-ups waxed so exuberant that they cast restraint aside and bombarded the street-cars so wickedly that a number of windows were broken and the police actually "ran in" some of the over-joyous citizens.

"H.M.S. Pinafore"

Good houses greeted the performance of "H. M. S. Pinafore" on Monday and Tuesday nights, by the Musical and Dramatic Society, and the audiences were generous in their applause, but, to be frank, the rendering of the opera was inferior to that of three years ago, due apparently to the rush to present it before Lent and lack of sufficient time for rehearsal. While the principal male characters acted their parts creditably, their singing was not up to the standard of the previous presentation. The ladies, on the other hand, did very well, Miss Cockrell making a charming and vivacious "Little Buttercup," while Mrs. J. N.
Thompson ably filled the part of "Josephine." Their good work was recognised by the presentation to them of bouquets at the end of the first act, on Tuesday night, some amusement being caused by "Little Buttercup" doing such a realistic and prolonged stage faint that she had to be roused to receive her floral tribute.

The outstanding feature of the stage setting was the delightful back scene, painted by Mr. G. McKie, in which a stately three-decker of the olden time was depicted at her moorings in a peaceful, land-locked harbour. A fine scenic effect was produced of moonlight on the rippling water by means of illumination behind the curtain, and the picture was such a pretty one that it called forth loud applause from the audience.

The orchestra gave a good account of the charming music of the opera, and the male and female choruses rendered yeoman service.

The dramatic personae were as follows:

The Rt. Hon. Sir Joseph Porter, K.
C.B., First Lord of the Admiralty
—R. C. Reed.

Captain Corcoran, commanding "H.M.
S. Pinafore"—G. C. Benmore.

Ralph Rackstraw, able seaman—E. G.
Fuller.

Dick Deadeye, able seaman—A. L.
Meugens.

Bill Bobstay, boatswain—H. T. Meugens.

Bob Becket, boatswain's mate—W. A.
Peters.

Tom Tucker, midshipmite—G. Whitehead.

Josephine, the Captain's daughter—Mrs. J. N. Thompson.

Hebe, Sir Joseph's first cousin—Mrs.
L. A. Hayman.

Little Buttercup, a Portsmouth bumbay woman—Miss Cockrell.

his Aunts, Sailors and Marines.

Stage Manager—Mr. R. C. Reed.

The formation of the Westbank Farmers' Institute has been officially

She added a number of figures mentally, supplied her by the audience, writing at the same time 226 words in 120 seconds.

The present method of conveying prisoners between Vancouver and New Westminster in the cars of the B. C. E. R. Co. is a source of annoyance and discomfort to the passengers, and an agitation is on foot for the provision of a suitable vehicle. The Board of Police Commissioners will debate the subject at their next meeting.

Vancouver's first response to the appeal for aid from the famine and plague stricken districts in China, was made on Saturday when the sum of $1,000 was cabled to the Red Cross secretary, in Shanghai. The opening of this line will tend to stimulate the influx of settlers to a region which has great agricultural and fruit-growing possibilities.

The U. S. Interstate Commerce Commission on Thursday last ordered reductions in freight rates on practically every known variety of merchandise transported by railroads. As usual, the railroads are entering strong protests.
